NEWPORT AND LENOX LIVELY AFTER ST. SWITHIN'S DELUGE

Cottagers Take Part in Celebrating Return of Lenox Soldiers—Arrest Follows Numerous Burglaries

OTTAGERS lent a hand this J. week in the welcoming home celebration for the Lenox soldiers and sailors. There was a celebration all day Thursday, the town taking a holiday, and the week culminated in sports and a big clambake for the service men at the Dixey shore at Lake Mahkeenac this after-George E. Turnure, Selectman and former Major of the Berkshire State Guard, was marshal of the day. Lieut.-Col. Newbold Morris, Capt. Samuel Frothingham, Major David T. Dana and others were on the mounted staff of the marshal. Miss Gertrude Parsons and Miss Heloise Meyer, who had been in canteen work abroad, sided the committee and marched in the parade. A host of cottagers gathered at Curtis Hotel to review the parade and to cheer the division of 200 ervice men in uniform. Overhead Ident, L. Victor Beau of the Mineola (L. I.) aviation corps, dipped in an airplane and scattered roses before the marching men. The town was swathed in national colors. Dr. Cyrille D. Duclos of the Selectmen presented testimonials for valor to the soldiers and sailors. There followed dinner at Cur-tis Hotel. A baseball game between Providence and Pittsfield teams of the Eastern League at the park was well agers. Massed band concerts in the afternoon and a gay ball at night in the town hall were the finals of the day. Miss Gertrude Parsons decorated loats for the parade; Mrs. William E. S. Griswold gave the use of her grounds as a landing place for the airdane. This afternoon the sports were attended by 400 men. A real New

The arrest of a burglar Tuesday in the residence of the late Mrs. John nerman by L. Harry Peters and Harry Heermanns, probably the same man who had entered Belvoir Terrace, Hidden House and Fairlawn, this week, caused relief to timid cottagers. The cottagers will ask the town to post a reward of $500 for information that will lead to the arrest and conviction of burglars operating in Lenox.
